COLLECT

God of compassion,
 whose Son Jesus Christ, the child of Mary,
 shared the life of a home in Nazareth,
 and on the cross drew the whole human family to himself: strengthen us in our daily living that in joy and in sorrow we may know the power of your presence to bind together and to heal;
 through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
 who is alive and reigns with you,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.

Amen

POST COMMUNION

Loving God,
 as a mother feeds her children at the breast you feed us in this sacrament with the food and drink of eternal life:
 help us who have tasted your goodness to grow in grace within the household of faith;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

FIRST READING

Either Exodus 2:1–10

A reading from the book of Exodus.

1 A man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman.

2 The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him for three months.

3 When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river.

4 His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

5 The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it.

6 When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him, 'This must be one of the Hebrews' children,' she said.

7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?'

8 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Yes.' So the girl went and called the child's mother.

9 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.' So the woman took the child and nursed it.

10 When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, 'because,' she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

PSALM

Psalm 127:1–4

RESPONSE: It is the Lord who builds the house.

1 Unless the Lord builds the house, their labour is in vain who build it.

2 Unless the Lord watches over the city, in vain the guard keeps vigil.

RESPONSE

3 It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late; vain, too, to eat the bread of toil, for he gives to his beloved sleep.

4 Children are a heritage from the Lord, and the fruit of the womb is a gift.

RESPONSE

SECOND READING

Colossians 3:12–17

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians.

12 As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.

13 Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

14 Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

GOSPEL

John 19.25b–27

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

25 Standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, 'Woman, here is your son.'

27 Then he said to the disciple, 'Here is your mother.' And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

Pease take your pew sheet home, so you are able to reflect on today's readings.

FURTHER NOTICES

Love Thy Neighbour - A New Initiative

We have been given the opportunity to work with the North East Derbyshire District Council to help support those in our community who are struggling with homelessness. The council will now be coming to us with people and families that we can help support.

This week we have been made aware of a young couple who were recently homeless and have now moved into accommodation. They have absolutely nothing in terms of household belongings. Please consider if you can help provide the following items:

- Bedding
- Pillows
- Towels
- Tea towels
- Pots
- Pans
- Baking tray/tin
- Cutlery
- Washing up bowl
- Cleaning equipment
- Cleaning cloths

Larger items:

- Double bed
- Settee and/or 2 chairs
- Fridge
- Washing machine

If you are able to help with any of these items, please contact Lynda to arrange drop off at the Rectory or for pick up. 01246 279 932
